COURSE PREREQUISITES: There are no specific prerequisites for this course, however students are strongly advised to have taken Psychology 1000 previously.

ANTIREQUISITE(S): Psychology 2042A/B (Exceptional Children: Behavioural Disorders), Psychology 2043A/B (Exceptional Children: Developmental Disorders), Psychology 3320F/G (Child Psychopathology), Psychology 3434E (Exceptional Child)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to provide students with a broad understanding of exceptional children, drawing insights from theory, research, and practice. The course will cover issues of etiology (causes), assessment and diagnosis, and characteristics of students with various exceptionalities, with a particular focus on high-incidence exceptionalities such as learning disabilities, intellectual disabilities, ADHD, and emotional/behavioural issues that interfere with learning and adjustment. Students will also be exposed to a range of interventions and will learn practical strategies for working with exceptional children in schools or other contexts.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of this course, students will:

- Demonstrate a foundational understanding of approaches to defining and identifying “exceptional children”
- Be aware of some of the complex and interacting factors that may cause exceptionality
- Be able to identify some fundamental characteristics of children with high-incidence exceptionalities (including ADHD, learning disabilities, ASD, intellectual disabilities, and emotional/behavioural issues)
- Be able to identify a range of prevention and intervention strategies for exceptional children
- In addition to these overall course objectives, learning objectives for each lecture will be presented in class. Exams will be designed to assess whether students have met these learning objectives.

METHODS OF EVALUATION

Methods of evaluation and weighting of marks are as follows:

- Exam #1 (Tuesday November 3rd 2015): 25%
- Exam #2 (Tuesday February 9th, 2016): 30%
- Exam #3 (Final Exam Period): 30%
- In-Class Activities/Exit Tickets: 15%

EXAMS

There will be three examinations. These examinations are assessments of learning, and are intended to evaluate your knowledge of course concepts. The content of exams will be tied to the learning objectives of the course.

Exams may include true/false, multiple-choice, fill-in-the-blank, matching, and/or short answer questions. Exams will be non-cumulative. Dates and material to be covered are as follows:

Exam #1 – Tuesday November 8

Exam #2—Tuesday February 21

Exam #3—Final Exam April 25

IN-CLASS ACTIVITIES/EXIT TICKETS

Every class will require completion of one or more in-class activities or exit tickets that students will submit at the end of class. These activities are formative assessments, or assessments for learning, rather than summative assessments, or assessments of learning (Ontario Ministry of Education- Learning for All, 2013). Therefore they are intended to allow me to gain information about each student’s developing understanding and adjust teaching strategies as necessary, not to “test” students on their knowledge. For each complete in-class activity/exit ticket that students submit (all questions answered or all parts complete), they will receive 1%. For any activity/ticket that is not handed in or is not complete, students will not receive credit. Therefore, students must submit 15 complete activities/exit tickets over the duration of the course in order to receive full credit. In-class activities and exit tickets must be completed in-class on the day they are assigned- there will be no opportunities to “make up” missed activities. Students can receive a maximum of 15% for completing in-class activities and exit tickets.

Please note that grades cannot be adjusted on the basis of need. Your mark in the course will be the mark that you earn. Tests and exams cannot be re-written to obtain a higher mark and there are no extra credit assignments.

For questions regarding missed tests or exams, see Brescia Academic Policies (below).

LECTURES AND REQUIRED READINGS

Please come prepared to each lecture having read the assigned readings. All chapters are from the required text. Links to any articles or other readings will be posted on OWL.

Lectures will review material covered in the readings, as well as clarifying concepts and adding additional information.

Please note that this schedule and the assigned readings are tentative and subject to change. Changes and updates will be discussed in class and posted on OWL.

BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING MAKEUP EXAMS AND EXTENSIONS OF DEADLINES

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation. Academic accommodation on medical grounds will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete her academic responsibilities. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's instructor(s). Please note that personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

A UWO Student Medical Certificate (SMC) is required if a student is seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds. This documentation should be obtained at the time of the initial consultation with the physician/nurse practitioner or walk-in clinic. A SMC can be downloaded under the Medical Documentation heading of the following website: <https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm>. If it is not possible to have an SMC completed by the attending physician/nurse practitioner, the student must request documentation sufficient to demonstrate that her ability to meet academic responsibilities was seriously affected. Please note that under University Senate regulations documentation stating simply that the student "was seen for a medical reason" or "was ill" is not adequate to support a request for academic accommodation. All documentation is to be submitted to an Academic Advisor.

Whenever possible, requests for academic accommodation should be initiated in advance of due dates, examination dates, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and Academic Advisor in a timely manner.

The full statement of University policy regarding extensions of deadlines or makeup exams can be found at <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2015/pg117.html>

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNS

If you feel that you have a medical or personal problem that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds may not be considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult an Academic Advisor. If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines (refer to the Registrar's website, www.registrar.uwo.ca, for official dates). You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

The Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory.

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work and arrange academic accommodations, if appropriate.

4. POLICY ON CHEATING & ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offences in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Academic Misconduct in the Western Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Student Services Centre, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar).

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com.

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal signed by the student must be sent to the Department Chair. If the response of the department is considered unsatisfactory to the student, she may then submit a signed, written appeal to the Office of the Dean. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office, or you can consult an Academic Advisor.

Students are advised to consult the section on Academic Rights and Responsibilities in the Western Academic Calendar.

6. PREREQUISITES AND ANTIREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Similarly, you will also be deleted from a class list if you have previously taken an antirequisite course unless this has the approval of the Dean. These decisions may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course because you have taken an antirequisite course.

7. SUPPORT SERVICES

The Brescia University College Registrar's website, with a link to Academic Advisors, is at <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/> .
