CURRENT CALENDAR COURSE DESCRIPTION

Through the study of the cultural productions from the 19th Century in France, students will deepen their knowledge of specific productions as well as of critical approaches to them in order to be able to formulate their own critical perspectives and to communicate them effectively and accurately orally and in writing.

Prerequisites: FR2600E or (FR2605F/G and FR2606FG) or permission of the Department.

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Over the course of the semester, we will study three complete works and several works in excerpt in order to develop a literary portrait of city life in the 19th Century, the age of revolutions. This era saw important industrial, social, political, religious, and artistic changes which are all reflected in the literature and art of the day. Our coursework will cover the major artistic movements of the century from Romanticism to Naturalism in both prose and verse. Through our readings and discussions, we will also examine the rise of the printing press, the role of women in the arts, and the effects of urbanisation on French daily life.

LEARNING OUTCOMES/TRANSFERABLE SKILLS

French 3692G is an interactive course, and as such, requires the active participation of each student. By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify and define the primary artistic movements of the era (Romanticism, Realism, Naturalism, Fantasy, etc.)
- Appreciate the insight of others through shared discussion and collaborative analysis
- Formulate your own literary opinions and reinforce your critical thinking skills
- Progress your vocabulary skills and work towards greater language mastery
- Identify language devices (comparison, metaphor, allusion, etc.)
- Use a variety of modes of communication (an explication de texte, an annotated bibliography, an essay)
- Plan, organise, and write a research essay on a work studied in class
- Plan, develop, and deliver a “Poster Presentation” (alone or with a partner) on an aspect of 19th Century French art or culture

BRESCIA COMPETENCIES

- COMMUNICATING IDEAS
 - Students will be able to develop clear, thoughtful, and developed arguments and messages that target specific audience and incorporates others' perspectives.
 - Students will demonstrate the ability to follow the conventions and techniques of French literary studies.
- CRITICAL THINKING
 - Students will be able to identify and develop focussed subject inquiry, finding appropriate evidence from various sources.
 - Students will demonstrate the ability to analyse evidence to find patterns, limitations, biases, and draw conclusions.
 - Students will regularly make up of search tools to find relevant, and often credible sources.
- SOCIAL AWARENESS AND ENGAGEMENT
 - Students will demonstrate surface understanding of, and interest in, different cultures and social issues.
 - Students will show an understanding of the complexity of culture by asking questions and expressing an openness to differences in cultures and social issues.

COURSE MATERIAL

Required works:

1. Honoré de Balzac. Le Père Goriot. Paris, Gallimard, 2011.
2. Charles Baudelaire. Les Fleurs du mal. Paris, Gallimard, 2004.
3. Edmond Rostand. Cyrano de Bergerac. Paris, Gallimard, 2006
4. George Sand. Histoire de ma vie. Excerpts available on OWL.

DISTRIBUTION OF MARKS

Compte rendu d'un article critique	10%
Présentation orale (Poster Presentation)	15%
Explication de texte (Baudelaire)	15%
Essay and Dossier (2000 words)	30%

- Essay Proposal and Annotated Bibliography (10%)
- Peer Review/Rough Draft (5%)
- Final Draft (15%)

Final Exam	25%
Attendance	5%

ASSIGNMENTS

Compte rendu critique: In this at-home assignment, students will analyse and critique a scholarly article related to the course material. They will briefly summarise the argument of the assigned text, identify the thesis, and finally determine if the article succeeds in illustrating clearly and effectively its thesis.

Explication de texte: This is a “close reading” exercise that will allow students to go beyond the surface meaning of a text. Students will be given a poem to analyse. They will identify rhetorical devices and describe the structure in order to find the secondary meaning of the text.

Poster Presentation: Either alone or with a partner, students will create a poster on their assigned topic and prepare an “elevator pitch” to present to their classmates. Posters are used in teaching and in academia to summarise information and research using small amounts of text, images, graphics, etc. to generate discussion and share information quickly.

Essay and Essay Dossier: At the end of the semester, students will prepare and submit a research essay examining a work studied in class. The primary objective of this assignment is to reflect upon a work studied in class using secondary sources to help support your analysis. The dossier will include an essay proposal of one paragraph in which students present their topic and their hypothesis. It will also include an annotated bibliography in which students will briefly summarise the thesis of 3 secondary sources and how they will use each source in their own paper.

Attendance: This mark is entirely dependent upon your regular presence in class. Each unjustifiable absence will result in a 0,5-mark loss (10 absences = 0/5).

For any assignment or test worth 10% or more of the final grade, students must submit documentation and contact an academic advisor to obtain an official accommodation recommendation from an academic advisor.

Late assignments will be assessed a penalty of 5% per day (including weekends).

The proper use of French language (spelling, grammar, syntax) will count for 15% of each mark, including tests and the final exam

2017-18 BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING MAKEUP EXAMS AND EXTENSIONS OF DEADLINES

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation. Academic accommodation for illness will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete her academic responsibilities. Minor ailments typically treated by over-the-counter medications will not normally be accommodated. Documentation shall be submitted as soon as possible to the student's Academic Advisor indicating the period of illness and when the student should be able to resume academic responsibilities. Students must submit their documentation along with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested no later than two business days after the date specified for resuming responsibilities. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's instructor(s). Please note that personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

A UWO Student Medical Certificate (SMC) is required if a student is seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds. This documentation should be obtained at the time of the initial consultation with the physician/nurse practitioner or walk-in clinic. A SMC can be downloaded from: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf. The student must request documentation sufficient to demonstrate that her ability to meet academic responsibilities was seriously affected. Please note that under University Senate regulations documentation stating simply that the student "was seen for a medical reason" or "was ill" is not adequate to support a request for academic accommodation.

Whenever possible, requests for academic accommodation should be initiated in advance of due dates, examination dates, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and Academic Advisor in a timely manner.

The full policy on requesting accommodation due to illness can be viewed at: <http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg117.html>

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNS

If you feel that you have a medical or personal problem that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds may not be considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult an Academic Advisor. If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines (refer to the Registrar's website, <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/> or the list of official dates <http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg7.html>). You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

The Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory (<http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg130.html>)

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work and arrange academic accommodations, if appropriate.

4. POLICY ON CHEATING & ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offences in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Academic Misconduct in the Western Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Student Services Centre, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar).

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal signed by the student must be sent to the Department Chair. If the response of the department is considered unsatisfactory to the student, she may then submit a signed, written appeal to the Office of the Dean. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office, or you can consult an Academic Advisor. Students are advised to consult the section on Student Academic Appeals under Academic Rights and Responsibilities in the Western Academic Calendar (<http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg112.html>).

Note that final course marks are not official until the Academic Dean has reviewed and signed the final grade report for the course. If course marks deviate from acceptable and appropriate standards, the Academic Dean may require grades to be adjusted to align them with accepted grading practices (http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/exam/evaluation_undergrad.pdf and http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/exam/finalgrades.pdf).

6. PREREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisite(s).

7. SUPPORT

Support Services

The Brescia University College Registrar's website, with a link to Academic Advisors, is at <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/>. The website for the Student Development Centre at Western is <http://www.sdc.uwo.ca/>.

Mental Health and Wellness

Students may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to your learning, such as increased anxiety, feeling overwhelmed, feeling down or lost, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. Services are available to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. You can learn more about mental health and wellness at Brescia at <http://brescia.uwo.ca/life/mental-health-wellness/>.
