COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces students to the theory and practice of global development. Global issues such as poverty, hunger, discrimination, and environmental degradation will be considered, as well as international responses to them. This course aims to strike a balance between the theory and current discourse surrounding international development and the practice of community development at a grassroots level.

LEARNING OUTCOMES AND COMPETENCIES:

Upon completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of some of the global issues affecting community development through reading relevant literature, participating in classroom discussions and activities, and completing required assignments (Interpersonal Communication; Problem Solving; Self-Awareness);
2. Explain the theory of globalization and the history of international development (Critical Thinking);
3. Identify the ways in which aid can perpetuate or reduce conflict (Critical Thinking);
4. Apply best practice models in international development to project design (Critical Thinking; Interpersonal Communication; Self-Awareness);
5. Strategize, in collaboration with others, to create and practice more sustainable and equitable approaches (Communication; Social Awareness; Critical Thinking).

Students may vary in their competency levels on these outcomes. They can expect to achieve these outcomes if they honor course policies, attend classes regularly, complete all assigned work in good faith and on time, and meet all other course expectations of them as students. (Linda Nilson, Teaching at its Best, 2010: 37).

DETAILED BREAKDOWN OF ASSIGNMENTS :

1) Ongoing Preparation and Participation: 15%

The success of the teaching and learning process depends on each person's preparation and participation. Being absent, or late, detracts from the learning experience for everyone. Here are some guiding thoughts about preparation and participation. Regarding preparation, make every effort to read all required readings prior to class. In reflecting on the reading, think about what was positive about the material. What concepts were difficult to grasp? In what ways do you agree or disagree with the author? What questions do you have about how to put into practice what you are reading? Regarding participation, do your best to offer, each class, your thoughts, insights and questions about the activities and readings of the course. But, allow space for all students to participate. When your colleagues are participating, pose follow-up questions seeking clarification of a point if you need it, respectfully challenge their points of view (if you disagree), and offer comments that further the conversation.

2) Do No Harm Case Study: 15%      Due: October 19, 2017

In this assignment you will be provided with a scenario based on a current real life crisis and your task will be to apply the local capacities for peace framework as outlined by Mary B. Anderson. The scenario and a template for the report will be provided to students no later than October 7th 2015

3) Mid-term Exam: 30%      Date: November 2, 2017

This midterm will cover all material (i.e., lectures, & readings) from the beginning of the course up to the date of the midterm.

4) Group Proposal Presentations: 15 %      Due: November 30, 2017

This presentation is part of your major assignment for this course. In groups of 3 you will form a proposal development team to develop a full proposal for an international development project and community of your choice. You will prepare a 30-45 minute presentation where you will present your project idea to your classmates who will act as the donor agency to whom you are applying for funds. You must "sell" your analysis of the problem and your recommended intervention. In order to secure this meeting with the donors you are required to come with a completed logic model. In this assignment, all team members will receive the same grade for their presentation and are expected to participate in some way in the presentation.

5) Major Assignment – Project Proposal: 25%      Due: December 7th, 2017

You are expected to draw on all of the readings and course lectures to develop a full project proposal for an international development project and community of your choice. A proposal template will be provided to all students for the purposes of this assignment. In this assignment all team members are expected to work together in the development and writing of the proposal. Peer evaluations will be conducted and will represent 15% of the total mark for this assignment.

COURSE POLICIES

Attendance Policy

This course has a Student Focused Learning (SFL) attendance policy. Class attendance is the best predictor of academic performance, so by attending class, you are setting yourself up for success. Missing more than 25% (or 9 hours) of scheduled course hours without an academic accommodation will result in the following academic consequences: 1) receiving a “0” in the semester class contribution component, and, 2) completing the group project independently.

You are expected to attend class. You should check your UWO email and OWL site mail regularly for any notifications regarding your attendance. You should read the course outline and clarify any concerns that you might have regarding the class attendance policy with me. I suggest that you track your class attendance.

I will send you an email if you are at risk of exceeding the allowable level of absenteeism. If you are struggling with attendance, I encourage you to talk to me, to your academic advisor, to a spiritual advisor, or to a member of the student life staff. We may be able to help. If you believe that your situation warrants an academic accommodation, please consult with your academic advisor to determine if an accommodation would apply to your situation.

Student Use of Technology in Class

I welcome the use of laptops in the classroom if they are used for class related purposes, such as research, participation in class exercises. Using your computer or phone during class for personal activities such as reading or writing e-mail, surfing the web, or playing games is distracting for others, is not conducive to your own learning, and is disrespectful to the instructor. Please ensure your phones are turned off and placed inside a bag.

Recent research shows that grades decline when you use laptops in the classroom for non-educational tasks. Additionally, students find other students use of laptops in the classroom the number one source of interference with their ability to learn (Fried, 2008). So, if I find you using a laptop for non-class related activities, I will ask you to close the laptop for the remainder of the class or until a class exercise requires the use of the laptop.

Texting substantially reduces academic performance. Researchers asked half the students in an accounting class to text their professor three times, while the other half were requested to refrain from texting. Students were then tested at the end of the lecture on the contents of the lecture. The students who texted scored 16% points lower than those who did not text (Ellis, Daniels & Jauregui, 2010). As a result, if I find you texting I will ask you to put your phone away.

Fried, C. (2008). In-class laptop use and its effects on student learning. Computers and Education (50). 906-914.

Ellis, Y., Daniels, B.& Jauregui, A. (2010). The effect of multi-tasking on the grade performance of business students. Research in Higher Education. (8).1 – 10.

Email

Email is a useful tool for sharing news, setting up appointments, or for a simple assignment clarification, but for more complex questions, a face-to-face meeting is best. Please make an appointment to discuss any personal, academic, group work, or controversial issues in person, especially any concerns that you might have about your grades.

For privacy reasons, you must use your Western email account to contact me. Please include your name, course and section number in the subject line of your emails. I check email Monday through Friday during office hours; you can expect a response within 48 hours during the work week. I will not check email over weekends and holidays, so plan accordingly.

Appointments

Students are welcome to meet with me by arranging an appointment at a mutually convenient time. Be on time for your appointment, have an objective for the discussion and bring a copy of your paper or exam you wish to discuss.

Privacy

To respect privacy laws and the privacy of individual students, all grades will be distributed on OWL only. If you wish to discuss a grade, or review a test or paper, please make an appointment with the professor to do so in person. To respect your privacy, I will discuss your grades only with you. Please do not share or compare your grades. I cannot share information about another student's grades, so discussions comparing grades between students will not be entertained.

DROPPING A COURSE

To drop a course without academic penalty, you must drop the course by the following dates:

Fall Term Half Credit Course	November 12, 2017
Winter Term Half Credit Course	March 7, 2018
Full Credit Course	November 30, 2017

For further details, check the online academic calendar in the registrar's website. To book an appointment with one of Brescia's Academic Advisors, call 519.432.8353, extension 28266. If you are registered at another college or main campus, please make an appointment to see your academic advisor at your home campus.

2017-18 BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING MAKEUP EXAMS AND EXTENSIONS OF DEADLINES

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation. Academic accommodation for illness will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete her academic responsibilities. Minor ailments typically treated by over-the-counter medications will not normally be accommodated. Documentation shall be submitted as soon as possible to the student's Academic Advisor indicating the period of illness and when the student should be able to resume academic responsibilities. Students must submit their documentation along with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested no later than two business days after the date specified for resuming responsibilities. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's instructor(s). Please note that personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

A UWO Student Medical Certificate (SMC) is required if a student is seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds. This documentation should be obtained at the time of the initial consultation with the physician/nurse practitioner or walk-in clinic. A SMC can be downloaded from: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf. The student must request documentation sufficient to demonstrate that her ability to meet academic responsibilities was seriously affected. Please note that under University Senate regulations documentation stating simply that the student "was seen for a medical reason" or "was ill" is not adequate to support a request for academic accommodation.

Whenever possible, requests for academic accommodation should be initiated in advance of due dates, examination dates, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and Academic Advisor in a timely manner.

The full policy on requesting accommodation due to illness can be viewed at:
<http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg117.html>

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNS

If you feel that you have a medical or personal problem that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds may not be considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult an Academic Advisor. If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines (refer to the Registrar's website, <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/> or the list of official dates <http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg7.html> ). You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

The Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory (<http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg130.html> )

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work and arrange academic accommodations, if appropriate.

4. POLICY ON CHEATING & ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/scholastic\_discipline\_undergrad.pdf.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offences in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Academic Misconduct in the Western Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Student Services Centre, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar).

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal signed by the student must be sent to the Department Chair. If the response of the department is considered unsatisfactory to the student, she may then submit a signed, written appeal to the Office of the Dean. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office, or you can consult an Academic Advisor. Students are advised to consult the section on Student Academic Appeals under Academic Rights and Responsibilities in the Western Academic Calendar (<http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2017/pg112.html>).

Note that final course marks are not official until the Academic Dean has reviewed and signed the final grade report for the course. If course marks deviate from acceptable and appropriate standards, the Academic Dean may require grades to be adjusted to align them with accepted grading practices

6. PREREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisite(s).
