Course Description:

These two centuries were unusually significant for the development of our European heritage. Threats to the social order appeared from every direction: unstable economies, social unrest, religious turmoil, the New World, urban growth, changing ideas about good governance, conflicts between the rulers and the ruled, shifting household relationships, and rising crime rates. There was great uncertainty in Western Europe during the early modern period, resulting in dramatic change and innovation within all aspects of life: political, cultural, religious, scientific, economic, social, professional and military. This course considers the challenges that faced early modern European society, how different regions dealt with these threats, and the interrelationships between these changes. A comprehensive treatment of two centuries and the numerous territorial units of the era will be impossible; however, the course addresses the major characters, pivotal ideas and significant issues in the political, social, economic, religious, scientific and cultural life of Western Europe (particularly in England, France, Spain, Italy, Germany and the Holy Roman Empire.)

As a secondary goal, this course aims to familiarize students with the concept of historiography. Historiography considers the way that history is written and the way in which historians interact with one another; it is a fundamental methodological tool of the historical discipline. Students will be challenged in lectures, in tutorials, and in written assignments to use historiography as a means of developing their critical faculties and engaging in the wider debates of early modern European historians.

ASSESSMENT DETAILS

First Term Essay: 10% 20 November 2019

(Paper Copy in class; electronic on OWL SAKAI.)

The goal of this first assignment is to introduce you to, and familiarize you with, the concept of historiography. Briefly stated, historiography is the study of what historians write and how they write it. Although there are many facts about which historians agree, there is also broad leeway about how those facts are interpreted and understood. Presented with the same historical data, different historians might draw vastly different conclusions about the meaning and significance of those facts. By studying these interpretations and attempting to determine the reasons for why they have emerged, it is possible to gain a clearer understanding of both the interpretation being offered and of the historical phenomena in question.

In this paper you will focus on examining the different interpretations provided by historians for a given historical event. As such, a simple narrative recounting of historical events will not be acceptable. Your task is not to determine what happened, but to attempt to survey and evaluate the various interpretations of what happened, as they have been put forth by other historians.

For this paper you must choose ONE of the options presented below:

Option #1: Martin Luther

Write a short paper (5-8 type-written, double-spaced pages) which examines the efforts of later authors to interpret the actions and motives of Martin Luther that precipitated the Reformation. For centuries now historians and theologians have engaged in heated debates about what motivated Martin Luther to break with the Roman Catholic Church and to establish a new Christian church. Your task will be to choose and examine three (one from Group A; one from Group B; and a third source from either group) of the following attempts by later writers (all of whom were writing at different times and with different agendas) to interpret Luther's motives. All of these sources are available on the internet:

Group A

Philip Melancthon, History or the Life and Actions of the Very Reverend Dr. Martin Luther Part I" (1548).

Philip Schaff, History of the Christian Church, Vol. VII, Chapter II & III (1858/1882).

Group B

H.G.Ganss, "Martin Luther" in The Catholic Encyclopedia (1913 ed.)

M.J. Lagrange, Luther on the Eve of His Revolt-- (Introduction and Epilogue only)

F.J. McGarrigle, "The Psychoanalysis of Luther: Escape From Pessimism" in American Ecclesiastical Review, 1935, pp. 252-270.

Once you have read and digested your sources, you must then write a paper in which you attempt to present and critically assess the explanations which you have read. As you critically evaluate the work of each writer, you may wish to ask yourself what motivations they might have had for drawing the conclusions they did (to answer this you will have to find out a little bit of biographical detail about each author you choose). After presenting and critically evaluating the positions of your authors, you must then decide which author's work you found to be the most persuasive. In many ways this is the most important element of the paper. Faced with a variety of answers to the same historical question, you must decide which author has proven their case the most convincingly. Your decision must be substantiated with the reasons for your choice; you must state clearly why you find a particular interpretation particularly believable.

NOTE: Please recognize that these are not necessarily the best, or even the most accurate, treatments of Luther's actions and motives. They have been chosen because of their radically different interpretations and tone.

Option #2: Anne Boleyn

Begin by locating and reading the following articles, all of which are available on JSTOR. While they are listed alphabetically here, make sure to read them in chronological order.

Bernard, G.W. "The Fall of Anne Boleyn." The English Historical Review. Vol. 106, No. 420. July, 1991, pp. 584-610.

Bernard, G.W. "The Fall of Anne Boleyn: A Rejoinder." The English Historical Review. Vol.107, No. 424. July 1992, pp.665-674.

Ives, E.W. "The Fall of Anne Boleyn Reconsidered." The English Historical Review. Vol. 107, No. 424. July 1992, pp. 651-664.

Warnicke, Retha. "The Fall of Anne Boleyn Revisited." The English Historical Review. Vol. 108, No. 428, July 1993, pp. 653-665.

These articles all deal with the question of whether Anne Boleyn was guilty of the crimes for which she was executed. What is interesting about these articles is that all three historians have used exactly the same pieces of evidence, and yet they come to very different conclusions about Anne and her eventual execution.

Your task is to write a short paper (6-8 type-written, double-spaced pages), which critically assesses these articles. What conclusion did each historian reach about Anne's guilt? What key pieces of evidence did they use to form these conclusions? Which pieces of evidence were most heavily valued or discredited by each historian? Ultimately, which historian did you find to be the most persuasive? This final question is the most important element of the paper. Faced with three interpretations of the same historical data, you must decide which historian has proven their case most convincingly. Your decision must be substantiated with the reasons for your decision; you must state clearly why you find a particular interpretation particularly believable.

Mid-Term Exam 1: 15% 30 October 2019 (In class)

Mid-Term Exam 2: 15% 12 February 2020 (In class)

You will not need all this time. Essay questions and identifications will be based on the lectures, tutorials and assigned readings.

Final Exam: 25% in Final Exam period, 3 hours.

The final exam will consist of essay questions drawn from the broad themes emerging from the course as a whole. Students are also expected to be familiar with the major debates about early modern history and the arguments made by different historians, which we explore in tutorials. Review sheets and a discussion session will be provided.

Note: →No electronic devices will be permitted during tests or examinations
 →You must pass the Final exam to pass the course
 →No paper will be graded without both paper and electronic copies.
 →Keep all preparatory notes, early drafts, and a spare copy of your work
 →History 2403E is an essay course: A student who fails to submit all the required written assignments, which together make up the "Essay" component of the course, will not receive credit for the course

Tutorials, discussions and class participation are worth 10%.

This is designed to promote a spirit of participation. Tutorials will be held as convenient during the lecture schedule, allowing students to discuss the assigned readings in a small, collegial environment. While some marks will be given for attendance and completion of the passport (a précis of 1 page minimum), most will be earned by participation in tutorials and class. Short of written exams, there is little other way to assess your grasp of the assigned readings, so it is hoped you will contribute. To ensure fair evaluation of these marks, attendance will be taken at each tutorial.

The Passport: Bring TWO copies to class.

Guidelines: -Summarize the main theme(s) of the readings, the major argument(s), and your response to the reading.

-Ask at least TWO of your own questions in response to the readings. Do not summarize the cover of the book or use book reviews as a substitute for producing an original response to the book.

The passport will be submitted to me when you enter the room; it is not a substitute for tutorial participation. Passports are only accepted in tutorials, not by email or after the class for which they were written. You cannot make up tutorials, although reasonable infrequent absences might result in re-weighting of grades. The passports will not be returned; they indicate your preparation to discuss the tutorial readings and provide me with an idea of your level of understanding.

NOTE: EXAM PREP

Tutorial Readings are included in exams. By keeping up with the tutorial readings and writing good summaries this will benefit you when studying for exams.

Major Essay in TWO parts, total 25%

Register topic and debate by 2 December 2019 Please consult with Dr Morrison in office hours. Mandatory Library Session 15 January 2020.

Topic Debate and Annotated Bibliography: 5% TWO copies due 26 February 2020

(In Class TWO Paper Copies; submit electronic copy on OWL SAKAI). Clearly state the historical debate and use your annotations to explain the author's position in the debate and the sources used to make this argument.

Essay: 25% due 18 March 2020 (In Class Paper Copy; electronic on OWL SAKAI)

Your second term essay has been designed to further develop your historiographical skills and awareness. Your task will be to choose a topic which deals with an issue or person contemporary to the sixteenth or the seventeenth century. Your topic should be a person, event, trend about which there is some historical controversy. Examples include (but are not limited to), the following topics:

1. Elizabeth I: Why did she never marry?
2. How should we best understand the character of Philip II of Spain?
3. What were the key factors that led to the defeat of the Spanish Armada?
4. What were the major causes of the Sixteenth Century Price Revolution?
5. What were the major causes of Spanish Decline?
6. Witchcraft: Why were most of those accused and executed for witchcraft women?
7. The Thirty Year's War: How destructive was it?
8. Peter the Great: Did he succeed in modernizing Russia?

9. Oliver Cromwell: Was he responsible for the slaughter of civilians at Drogheda?
10. Was Oliver Cromwell a tyrant or a hero?
11. Catholic Reformation or Counter Reformation?
12. Did Mary Queen of Scots murder her husband Lord Darnley?
13. Was Mary Queen of Scots involved in the Babington Plot?
14. Princes in the Tower: Did Richard III murder his nephews to seize the throne?
15. Mary Tudor: “Bloody Mary” or misunderstood?

Having chosen a topic, you will be required to find a minimum of five sources dealing directly and explicitly with the specific topic that you have chosen. You will then write a paper of approximately 12-15 typed, double-spaced pages which presents and evaluates the different ways in which historians have attempted to answer these questions. In your paper you should consider the following questions:

- What interpretation did each historian have of the historical evidence?
- What were the key pieces of evidence they used to form those conclusions?
- Were the same pieces of evidence available to all the historians you considered?
- Did your historians ‘weigh’ particular pieces of evidence differently?
- Did the author’s gender, faith, historical context, political ideologies, et cetera shape their interpretations?
- Ultimately, which historian did you find to be the most persuasive? And why? This final question is the most important element of the paper. Here you must exercise your critical faculties. Which historian has most correctly and most persuasively, interpreted the historical record? Your decision must be substantiated with the reasons for your decision; you must state clearly why you find a particular interpretation particularly persuasive.

Grammar, spelling and organization will weigh heavily in the final assessment of the paper. There is no reason for misspellings, inaccurate punctuation, and the like. Careless writing will result in a significantly lower final grade for your paper.

Please do not feel you have to choose one of these topics; they are intended only as illustrations of the broad range of topics available for writing an historiographical paper. You are encouraged to pursue topics in your own areas of interest, so long as the treatment remains historiographical. Please consult with me before 2 December 2019

Submit essays to turnitin.com. Also hand in TWO COPIES of your paper: a clean copy for my records and one copy for grading. Marks will not be recorded unless the professor also has an electronic and hard copy of your paper. If you wish the final paper to be returned to you, it is necessary to hand in both copies.

To help you get started, you will be required to hand in a topic debate summary and annotated bibliography (worth 5% of your course grade) by 26 February 2020 at the latest. Your bibliography must provide full bibliographic citations of your sources for each of the required centuries. It must also be annotated. This means that you must write 3-4 sentences about why this particular book will prove valuable to your paper. Topics considered unfeasible may be rejected. Please consult with Professor Morrison during office hours concerning your choice of topic. NO BIBLIOGRAPHIES OR ESSAYS WILL BE ACCEPTED BY EMAIL.

Finding Sources:

Finding the sources you will need for this paper is a critical step in completing this assignment. To aid you in your search, special library tutorials using in the Electronic Resources and Manuscripts will be scheduled in Brescia's Library and at the Weldon Library. These sessions will be held during class times and attendance will be taken. These sessions are designed to make you aware of all the resources (especially on-line resources) available to you. The importance of attendance at these information sessions cannot be overstated. It is hard to do well in the essay without attending.

The Weldon Library has also set up a web-site to help with topic and source selection for this course: History 2403E for direct links. Brescia librarians will explain this.

Such action may be considered a Code of Conduct violation and lead to sanctions.

Academic Accommodation

For course components worth 10% or more of the total course grade, please see the Academic Policies and Regulations section at the end of this course outline or consult the Academic Calendar.

2019-20 BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

The complete policy regarding Accommodation for Illness - Undergraduate Students can be found at http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_12.

Students who have long-term or chronic medical conditions which may impede their ability to complete academic responsibilities should seek Academic Accommodation through Student Accessibility Services (http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?PolicyCategoryID=1&Command=showCategory&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_10).

Personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

Students who experience an illness or extenuating circumstance sufficiently severe to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements may submit a request for academic consideration through the following routes:

1. Submitting a Self-Reported Absence form provided that the conditions for submission are met;
2. For medical absences, submitting a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) signed by a licensed medical or mental health practitioner;
3. For non-medical absences, submitting appropriate documentation (e.g., obituary, police report, accident report, court order, etc.) to their Academic Advisor. Students are encouraged to contact their Academic Advisor to clarify what documentation is acceptable.

Requests for Academic Consideration Using the Self-Reported Absence Portal

Students who experience an unexpected illness or injury or an extenuating circumstance of 48 hours or less that is sufficiently severe to render them unable to meet academic requirements should self-declare using the online Self-Reported Absence portal. This option should be used in situations where the student expects to resume academic responsibilities within 48 hours. Note that the excused absence includes all courses and academic requirements within the up to 48 hours, it is not intended to provide an excused absence from a single course while students fulfill their academic responsibilities in other courses during that time.

The following conditions are in place for self-reporting of medical or extenuating circumstances:

1. Students will be allowed a maximum of two self-reported absences between September and April and one self-reported absence between May and August;
2. The duration of the absence will be for a maximum of 48 hours from the time the Self-Reported Absence form is completed through the online portal, or from 8:30 am the following morning if the form is submitted after 4:30 pm;
3. The excused absence will terminate prior to the end of the 48 hour period if the student undertakes significant academic responsibilities (writes a test, submits a paper) during that time;
4. Self-reported absences will not be allowed for scheduled final examinations; midterm examinations scheduled during the December examination period; or for final lab examinations scheduled during the final week of term;
5. Self-report absences may not be used for assessments worth more than 30% of any course;
6. Any absences in excess of 48 hours will require students to present a Student Medical Certificate (SMC), or appropriate documentation;

7. Students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the Self-Reported Absence form to clarify how they will fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence.

Request for Academic Consideration for a Medical Absence

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation.

Academic accommodation for illness will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete their academic responsibilities. Minor ailments typically treated by over-the-counter medications will not normally be accommodated.

The following conditions apply for students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds:

1. Students must submit their Student Medical Certificate (SMC) along with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested no later than two business days after the date specified for resuming responsibilities. An SMC can be downloaded from http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf ;
2. In cases where there might be an extended absence or serious issue, students should submit their documentation promptly and consult their Academic Advisor for advice during their recovery period;
3. Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, scheduled tests or examinations, and other academic requirements;
4. Students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the SMC to clarify how they will fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence;
5. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office/Academic Advisor in consultation with the course instructor(s). Academic accommodation may include extension of deadlines, waiver of attendance requirements, arranging Special Exams (make-ups), re-weighting course requirements, or granting late withdrawal without academic penalty.

The full policy on requesting accommodation due to illness can be viewed at:

http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_12

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNS

If you feel that you have a medical or personal challenge that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds are not normally considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult your Academic Advisor. If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines; please refer to the Registrar's website, <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/> or the list of official sessional dates in the Academic Calendar (<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/SessionalDates.cfm?SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=>).

You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work, and arrange academic accommodations if appropriate and warranted.

It is important to note that the Academic Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory

(http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=5&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#SubHeading_68).

4. SCHOLASTIC OFFENCES

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence at:

http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_20.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Scholastic Discipline for Undergraduate Students in the Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Academic Dean's Office, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence.

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal is to be sent to the School Chair. If the response of the Chair is considered unsatisfactory to the student, they may then submit a written appeal to the Office of the Dean. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Dean, they may appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic (SRBA), if there are sufficient grounds for the appeal and if the matter falls within the jurisdiction of the SRBA. For information on academic appeals consult your Academic Advisor or see the Student Academic Appeals – Undergraduate in the Academic Calendar http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_14.

Note that final course marks are not official until the Academic Dean has reviewed and signed the final grade report for the course. If course marks deviate from acceptable and appropriate standards, the Academic Dean may require grades to be adjusted to align them with accepted grading practices.

6. PREREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written special permission from the Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisite(s).
