COURSE DESCRIPTION

This senior undergraduate seminar is the capstone course of the Leadership Studies major at Brescia and provides students with the opportunity to delve deeply into the field of leadership studies. In collaboration with colleagues and the professor, course participants select, develop and refine a research paper on a topic relevant to leadership studies. Constructive commentary will be offered and received within a weekly seminar structure by all course participants within an intentionally created scholarly community.

BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE INSTITUTION-LEVEL COMPETENCIES

Brescia's overarching goals are to foster the development of leadership among our students and to provide an academically superior university education. The competencies articulated as central to a Brescia education provide to our students the tools they need to lead with wisdom, justice and compassion. As a university college we value academic excellence and the mastery of the scholarly knowledge in students' chosen areas of study.

1. Communication: The ability to exchange information and meaning across cultures, space and time through appropriate modes of communication. Includes oral, written, and interpersonal or group communicate, as well as the ability to use current or innovative media.
2. Critical Thinking: The ability to engage in thinking characterized by the rational, informed, independent, and open-minded exploration of issues, ideas, and events before accepting or formulating a conclusion.
3. Inquiry and Analysis: The ability to reach informed decisions by breaking down complex issues, exploring evidence, and describing relationships among persons, things, or events.
4. Problem Solving: The ability to create and execute a strategy to answer a question or achieve a goal. Includes being able to anticipate the consequence of a potential solution, select a strategy among several alternatives, and decide when an acceptable outcome has been reached.
5. Self Awareness and Development: The ability to draw meaning, knowledge and value from honest and fair reflection and self-evaluation. Students are able to recognize their values and their impact on others, and make a commitment to personal growth.
6. Social Awareness and Engagement: The ability to respect and be open to diversity (e.g. cultural, religious, political) and social justice. Students take personal responsibility to actively engage in and contribute to creating positive change in local, regional, national, or global communities and societies.
7. Valuing: The ability to make decisions or choose actions based on the consistent application of moral principles and ethical codes. Students must also be able to understand the ideas informing one's beliefs and be accountable for their actions.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

By the end of this seminar, course participants will be able to:

1. Synthesize and integrate the cumulative interdisciplinary knowledge gained from prior courses in the Dimensions of Leadership program as well as other relevant courses that relate to leadership studies (L3 inquiry & analysis; L3 critical thinking);
2. Further refine their ability to think critically about scholarship dealing with theories and their application to leadership (L3 inquiry & analysis; L3 critical thinking; L3 problem solving);
3. Demonstrate, through traditional scholarly writing, an appreciation of the various assumptions and perspectives that inform the field of leadership studies (L3 communication; L3 valuing);
4. Develop skills associated with collegial interactions, including the ability to critique colleagues; work in a way that is constructive and encouraging (L3 problem-solving; L3 communication; L3 self-awareness & development; L3 social awareness & development); and
5. Contribute actively to the production of new knowledge in the field of Leadership (L3 communication).

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Students and the professor will meet weekly as a scholarly collective whose interest is in enhancing the research and writing skills of each course participant. Each week, in a round table format, students will present the current state of their research and provide others with constructive commentary. The course schedule has been designed to keep students on pace to complete a comprehensive essay at the end of the term. As such, the weekly topics will transition from initial conversations about research interests, to conversations about reading activities, and then into conversations about writing activities.

Students must complete all elements of evaluation in order to receive a passing grade in the course. There will be no re-weighting of components within the course unless a student has received an academic accommodation. Please note that grades cannot be adjusted on the basis of need. Your mark in the course will be the mark that you earn based on your demonstrated understanding of the course content. Extra credit assignments are not available. Once a student has handed in an assignment, she is committed to the mark earned. Late assignments will not be accepted without an academic accommodation.

Evaluation Component Descriptions

Students will be provided with detailed assignment descriptions and grading rubrics on the course site on OWL under "Assignments" as well as in class discussion of the assignments. All assignments must be submitted online through OWL by the due date.

Leader Personal Narratives – 5%

Each student will submit their personal reflections on a different set of questions for each narrative. Students will discuss their reflections in class within personal comfort level. All discussions must remain confidential.

Research Paper

The research paper will address a topic on leadership and be about 4000 words long (about 12 double-spaced pages) excluding any references and will be reviewed by two peers as well as presented to the class.

Annotated Bibliographies – 5%

Each of five submissions will include two annotated bibliographies for your topic using the following template <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/614/01/>

Introduction – 5%

Each student will present their topic and research question as well as why this is an important area to study and broadly what we know about the topic. In addition, the student will include their motivation to study this area of interest. The introductory paper will be about 2 pages, double spaced, 1 inch margins, Times New Roman, 12 pt. and presented in class. Good introductions:

- Engage the reader - anecdote, statistic, personal reflection, etc.
- Include two constructs being studied - may need to define them
- Identify the thesis - how do these two constructs relate
- Explain the lens by which you are looking at the thesis
- Describe the contribution to which conversation (which discipline, which literature) you hope to make Literature Review/ Statement of Fact – 10%

Each student will present a statement of facts or background relating to their paper to the class. The background paper will be about 750 to 1000 words and presented during class.

Propositions/ Arguments – 10%

Each student will also present a paper containing the arguments which form the basis for the analysis section of the final paper. The arguments paper will be about 1000 words long. The propositions will also be presented in class.

Draft Paper -10%

Inclusive of all elements of the full research paper

Peer Review of Draft Seminar Paper – 10%

Each student will provide a commentary, both written and verbally in class, on the quality of two assigned draft papers. Students will submit a first draft of their report to be reviewed by a peer. The reports will then be discussed in class, providing group feedback before the student submits their final paper. Each person will review two of their peer's papers and be responsible for providing feedback in class. Students will then have an opportunity to make revisions before submitting a final paper. The draft and final papers as well as the peer reviews MUST be submitted on the course site on OWL under "Assignments." The commentary will be about 1,000 words long (or three doubled spaced pages) and be presented to the class immediately after the presentation of seminar paper.

Full Research Paper – 35%

Inclusive of all elements of the full research paper with evidence of incorporation of peer feedback where appropriate.

Final Presentation – 10%

Presentation of the research paper using typical scholarly presentation format.

Participation in Learning

Contribution by each and every course participant is a cornerstone of any effective learning experience. Active class involvement augments the learning experience, increases assimilation of material and stimulates the level of class discussion. The expectation is that you contribute not only for your own learning but to the learning of your classmates. In this course this includes weekly discussions about your own research as well as responding to others' research. The grade awarded for class participation will be "satisfactory" or "unsatisfactory" and will reflect attendance, evidence of preparation and participation in weekly readings and/or assignments. Where class participation is "Satisfactory," the final grade will be the same as that awarded for the other forms of evaluation. Where class participation is "Unsatisfactory," the final grade will be one grade lower than that awarded for the other forms of evaluation. For example, a grade of "B" in the evaluative components of the course, taken together with a grade of "Satisfactory" in participation will result in a final grade of "B." A grade of "B" in the course components, taken with an "Unsatisfactory" will result in a final grade of "C+" for the course. We may also use the discussion board on the course site on OWL as a way to augment our discussions held during class but not as a substitution. If you have difficulties with participating in class, please make an appointment with me to discuss – sooner rather than later.

The class contribution portion of your grade will be determined by your contribution to the learning of the class. The evaluation will be based not only on how frequently you speak in class, but more importantly, by the quality of what you say and how well you listen and respond to others. High-quality contributions include: starting a class discussion with sound analysis, synthesizing class discussions, summarizing and moving class discussions ahead, giving constructive criticisms or building on others' ideas, substantiating one's views persuasively and logically, responding to others' critiques with reasoned rebuttal, graceful acceptance of new ideas, presenting well thought-out recommendations, recalling and sharing relevant experiences, being respectful and non-judgmental towards your classmates' opinions. Respect for the course and each other are essential.

In order to achieve a rating of 'satisfactory', you must come to each seminar meeting having read in advance any material to be discussed and being prepared to discuss it. I wish to avoid the situation where a student prepares, perhaps extensively, for his/her own presentation and commentary, but otherwise is very passive in seminar sessions. By the end of the semester, you should have contributed to the discussion frequently enough for me to recognize that you have prepared for class in advance by considering any circulated material.

Unsatisfactory contributions include: being absent from class without excuse, being unprepared for class, offering poorly thought-out analysis, personally criticizing classmates, being close-minded, disrespectful, or otherwise disruptive. These behaviours will lead to an "unsatisfactory." While attendance at all sessions in this course is expected, circumstances may arise which make it impossible for you to attend, e.g. illness. As a professional courtesy you are expected to advise me in advance of your absence and provide an explanation via messaging on OWL. Under University regulations, your professor can determine at what point absenteeism has become excessive (generally 25% of scheduled class time) and approach the Dean who may prevent you from writing the final paper, making it very difficult to pass the course. After missing three classes, you and I will meet to discuss how to ensure attendance at the remaining classes.

CLASS ETIQUETTE

Student Use of Technology in Class

Talking privately with classmates or using your computer during class for non-class related activities is distracting for others, is not conducive to your own learning and is disrespectful to the instructor. Please ensure your phones are turned OFF prior to entering the classroom and place them inside a bag.

I welcome the use of laptops in the classroom as long as they are used for class related purposes. Recent research has shown that laptop use in class for non-education related purposes is negatively related to academic performance. That is, grades decline when you use laptops in the classroom for non-educational tasks. Additionally, students find other students use of laptops in the classroom the number one source of interference with their ability to learn (Fried, 2008). As a result, if I find a student using a laptop for non-class related activities, I will ask them to close the laptop for the remainder of the class or until a class exercise requires the use of the laptop.

Research also shows that texting substantially reduces academic performance. Researchers asked half the students in an accounting class to text their professor three times, while the other half was requested to refrain from texting. Students were then tested at the end of the lecture on the contents of the lecture. The students who texted scored 16% points lower than those who did not text. (Ellis, Daniels & Jauregui, 2010). As a result, if I find a student texting I will ask them to put their cell phone away. Texting in class may result in a “-1” on class participation for that class.

A Note Regarding Email

Email is a useful tool for sharing news, setting up meetings or for a simple assignment clarification, but for more complex questions, a face to face meeting is best. Please make an appointment using email to discuss any personal, academic, group work or controversial issues in person, especially any concerns that you might have about your grades. I will check email Monday through Friday during office hours; you can expect a response within 48 hours during the work week. Over weekends and holidays I will not be checking email, so plan accordingly.

Appointments

Students are welcome to meet with the professor during the designated weekly office hours or by arranging an appointment at a mutually convenient time through email. Make sure to be on time for your appointment, have an objective for the discussion and bring a copy of your paper or exam you wish to discuss. All meetings will take place in the Mercato.

Privacy

To respect privacy laws, all grades will be distributed on the course site on OWL only. If a student wishes to discuss a grade, or review a test or paper, she must make an appointment with the professor to do so in person. To protect student privacy, the professor may only discuss grades with the student in question. Please do not share or compare your grades. The professor cannot share information about another student's grades, so discussions about comparison of grades between students will not be entertained.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

If, on medical or compassionate grounds, a student is unable to complete a course component worth greater than 10 per cent of the final course grade, it is the responsibility of the student to consult with an Academic Advisor and follow the procedures documented in the “POLICY

REGARDING MAKEUP EXAMS AND EXTENSIONS OF DEADLINES” found below within this outline.

For academic accommodation to be considered for any course component worth less than 10 per cent of the final course grade, it is the responsibility of the student to approach the course instructor(s) in a timely fashion (within two business days of the missed deadline). Documentation may be required to be submitted to the academic advisor. If documentation is required, the request for accommodation will be decided by the academic advisor in consultation with the instructor. If documentation is not required, the instructor will make the final decision.

2019-20 BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

The complete policy regarding Accommodation for Illness - Undergraduate Students can be found at http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_12.

Students who have long-term or chronic medical conditions which may impede their ability to complete academic responsibilities should seek Academic Accommodation through Student Accessibility Services (http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?PolicyCategoryID=1&Command=showCategory&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_10).

Personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

Students who experience an illness or extenuating circumstance sufficiently severe to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements may submit a request for academic consideration through the following routes:

1. Submitting a Self-Reported Absence form provided that the conditions for submission are met;
2. For medical absences, submitting a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) signed by a licensed medical or mental health practitioner;
3. For non-medical absences, submitting appropriate documentation (e.g., obituary, police report, accident report, court order, etc.) to their Academic Advisor. Students are encouraged to contact their Academic Advisor to clarify what documentation is acceptable.

Requests for Academic Consideration Using the Self-Reported Absence Portal

Students who experience an unexpected illness or injury or an extenuating circumstance of 48 hours or less that is sufficiently severe to render them unable to meet academic requirements should self-declare using the online Self-Reported Absence portal. This option should be used in situations where the student expects to resume academic responsibilities within 48 hours. Note that the excused absence includes all courses and academic requirements within the up to 48 hours, it is not intended to provide an excused absence from a single course while students fulfill their academic responsibilities in other courses during that time.

The following conditions are in place for self-reporting of medical or extenuating circumstances:

1. Students will be allowed a maximum of two self-reported absences between September and April and one self-reported absence between May and August;
2. The duration of the absence will be for a maximum of 48 hours from the time the Self-Reported Absence form is completed through the online portal, or from 8:30 am the following morning if the form is submitted after 4:30 pm;
3. The excused absence will terminate prior to the end of the 48 hour period if the student undertakes significant academic responsibilities (writes a test, submits a paper) during that time;
4. Self-reported absences will not be allowed for scheduled final examinations; midterm examinations scheduled during the December examination period; or for final lab examinations scheduled during the final week of term;
5. Self-report absences may not be used for assessments worth more than 30% of any course;
6. Any absences in excess of 48 hours will require students to present a Student Medical Certificate (SMC), or appropriate documentation;

7. Students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the Self-Reported Absence form to clarify how they will fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence.

Request for Academic Consideration for a Medical Absence

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation.

Academic accommodation for illness will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete their academic responsibilities. Minor ailments typically treated by over-the-counter medications will not normally be accommodated.

The following conditions apply for students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds:

1. Students must submit their Student Medical Certificate (SMC) along with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested no later than two business days after the date specified for resuming responsibilities. An SMC can be downloaded from http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf ;
2. In cases where there might be an extended absence or serious issue, students should submit their documentation promptly and consult their Academic Advisor for advice during their recovery period;
3. Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, scheduled tests or examinations, and other academic requirements;
4. Students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the SMC to clarify how they will fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence;
5. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office/Academic Advisor in consultation with the course instructor(s). Academic accommodation may include extension of deadlines, waiver of attendance requirements, arranging Special Exams (make-ups), re-weighting course requirements, or granting late withdrawal without academic penalty.

The full policy on requesting accommodation due to illness can be viewed at:

http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_12

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNS

If you feel that you have a medical or personal challenge that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds are not normally considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult your Academic Advisor. If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines; please refer to the Registrar's website, <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/> or the list of official sessional dates in the Academic Calendar (<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/SessionalDates.cfm?SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=>).

You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment.

Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work, and arrange academic accommodations if appropriate and warranted.

It is important to note that the Academic Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory

(http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=5&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#SubHeading_68).

4. SCHOLASTIC OFFENCES

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence at:

http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_20.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Scholastic Discipline for Undergraduate Students in the Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Academic Dean's Office, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence.

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal is to be sent to the School Chair. If the response of the Chair is considered unsatisfactory to the student, they may then submit a written appeal to the Office of the Dean. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Dean, they may appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic (SRBA), if there are sufficient grounds for the appeal and if the matter falls within the jurisdiction of the SRBA. For information on academic appeals consult your Academic Advisor or see the Student Academic Appeals – Undergraduate in the Academic Calendar

http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_14.

Note that final course marks are not official until the Academic Dean has reviewed and signed the final grade report for the course. If course marks deviate from acceptable and appropriate standards, the Academic Dean may require grades to be adjusted to align them with accepted grading practices.

6. PREREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written special permission from the Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisite(s).

7. SUPPORT

Support Services

The Brescia University College Registrar's website, with a link to Academic Advisors, is at <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/>. Students can access supports through Brescia's Student Life Centre (<http://brescia.uwo.ca/life/student-life/>) and Learning Skills Services at Western (<https://www.uwo.ca/sdc/learning/>)

Mental Health and Wellness

Students may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to your learning, such as increased anxiety, feeling overwhelmed, feeling down or lost, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. Services are available to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. You can obtain information about how to obtain help for yourself or others through Mental Health & Wellness at Brescia (<http://brescia.uwo.ca/life/mental-health-wellness/>) and Health and Wellness at Western, http://uwo.ca/health/mental_wellbeing/index.html.
