Contact Information:	David Hickey dhickey6@uwo.ca
Office:	Room 217, Ursuline Hall
Office Hours:	Mondays, 11:30 am-12:30 pm; Wednesdays, 4:00 pm-5:00 pm

Course Description:

This course will provide students with an introduction to the principles and techniques of successful academic writing. Through consultation with the instructor and with peers, and through a great deal of practice, students will develop numerous aspects of their writing. Our focus throughout will be on the types of writing skills that are central to academic success, including techniques of paraphrase, summary, description, analysis, and argument; we will incorporate each of these skills into a final research essay. We will discuss the strategies of effective writers and learn to recognize the elements of clear, focused, and organized writing.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the course, students will be expected to:

- * write clearly and concisely in a variety of styles
- * demonstrate the ability to improve personal writing through drafting
- * engage with and responsibly cite other writers' ideas
- * carefully and generously edit peers' work
- * learn to become efficient editors of their own work
- * demonstrate a solid understanding of the basics of grammar

Text List

Expectations

Success in this course requires a great deal of dedication. Good writing rarely happens without patience and tremendous effort. In order to develop your skills, you will be expected to draft and to redraft your work. Tests and assignment schedules can be altered ONLY when a student has met with an academic advisor and can provide the appropriate documentation for academic accommodation.

Attendance

You must plan to attend ALL of our classes. If you miss more than three hours of class meetings over the span of the course (the equivalent of one of class meeting) without a compelling reason, your final grade will be penalized 10%. For example, a grade of 80% will be reported as a 70%. If you miss more than six hours of class meetings without academic accommodation, your final grade will be penalized 20%. If you miss more than twelve hours of class meetings without academic accommodation, you will not be given a passing grade for the course.

Position Papers

By the end of the first week of class, you will be responsible for submitting a brief essay (at least two typed pages) that responds to an article that I have provided. You will start this essay in class on the first day. The purpose of this assignment is to give you some preliminary feedback on your writing so that you can target areas for improvement before you begin your final research essay. On June 11th, you will draft, peer-edit, and revise a second position paper during class time. This essay will be in response to an article that I will provide. On the last day of the course, you are responsible for submitting a revised version of your first position paper.

Annotated Bibliography

The annotated bibliography assignment is in support of your final research paper. As such, you are looking for two books and two articles that address your topic, either directly or indirectly. You do not need to provide an introductory or concluding paragraph for this assignment. It will consist instead of four brief paragraphs that describe and evaluate the source in question. Each paragraph is preceded by a works cited entry in either APA or MLA format. The entries that address your books will be slightly longer, of course, than those that address your articles, but 150 words for each paragraph is a good guideline. There are no extra marks for writing more than this amount; in fact, brevity is a part of the challenge. It is essential that you format the APA or MLA entries properly. Feel free to consult these websites for more information:

<http://www.lib.uwo.ca/tutorials/annotatedbibliographies>

<http://olinuris.library.cornell.edu/ref/research/skill28.htm>

Essay Proposal

An effective essay proposal lays the groundwork for your research and your writing. This document identifies the subject of your paper, provides some sense of what is already known about the topic, and establishes a preliminary argument that you can later refine. It does involve some research (essay proposals typically cite at least one secondary source). A template will be provided to help you complete this assignment.

Portfolio

Each student will be responsible for ensuring that all assignments and drafts are submitted to the portfolio folders that I will bring to class. These portfolios will consist of both in-class writing assignments and at-home writing. Please note that I will be checking for completion of assignments each time that I collect the portfolios: incomplete portfolios may not receive a passing grade.

Research Essay

The general topics for the research paper have been posted to OWL; your job is to choose one and to narrow it down. Your research essay must be 1500 words in length, not including the works cited. Much of the work that you'll do in this course will relate to this essay, so be sure to choose a topic that holds your interest.

First draft: Due June 15 (bring TWO copies)

Final draft: Due June 18

You MUST include the following sources as part of your research:

- *at least two books
- *at least two articles from academic journals/ periodicals

If you choose not to submit a first draft, you will lose 5% of your final grade; failure to bring completed drafts will also prevent you from participating in the peer review exercise.

Each draft of your research essay must include a complete bibliography that complies with the citation style that is acceptable to your home faculty, which may be either MLA or APA. (There are brief style guides available in A Canadian Writer's Reference.)

Please keep an electronic copy of each draft of your essay until you have received your final grade.

Peer Editing and Workshops

Good writers must also be good editors. To practice our editing skills, we will on occasion be workshopping elements of our writing. This will happen in pairs and in small groups. Because you will be relying on each other a great deal, regular attendance and punctuality are essential. It is also very important that you bring the required work with you to class.

Civility Statement

Together as a class, we agree to encourage each other to participate during discussion by listening to all contributions without judgement and without interruption. Any cell phones in the class should always be set to silent mode; they must also be turned off entirely during in-class writing assignments or peer-editing sessions. We agree that students may use computers (as long as they do so quietly and respectfully) and that we may eat and drink during class. Above all, we agree to treat each other with respect.

Office Hours

I have scheduled two office hours per week, and I encourage you to stop by. Office hours can be a great place to discuss various aspects of the course: if you find you are particularly excited about a certain assignment, I can recommend directions for further reading, and if you are frustrated with a particular topic, I can listen and offer assistance. If my scheduled hours do not work for you, you are welcome to make an appointment.

Email Policy

I am happy to use email to communicate with students. I respond to emails that I receive during the week within 24 hours; emails received on weekends will not receive a response until the following Monday. I ask that email be used to address specific concerns. For questions that require a detailed response, please come to my office hours. Please note that I do not release grades over email.

Final Grades

IMPORTANT: A student must receive a passing grade for both term work and the final examination in order to receive a passing grade for the course.

BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING MAKEUP EXAMS AND EXTENSIONS OF DEADLINES

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation. Academic accommodation on medical grounds will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete her academic responsibilities. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's instructor(s). Please note that personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

If supporting documentation is from a family physician, Hospital Urgent Care Centre or Emergency Department, or a walk-in clinic a UWO Student Medical Certificate (SMC) is required. To download an SMC go to <https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm> and follow the link under "Medical Documentation". Documentation should be obtained at the time of the initial visit. If it is not possible to have an SMC completed by the attending physician, the student must request documentation sufficient to demonstrate that her ability to meet academic responsibilities was seriously affected. Please note that under University Senate regulations document-ation stating simply that the student "was seen for a medical reason" or "was ill" is not considered adequate to support a request for academic accommodation. All documentation is to be submitted to an Academic Advisor.

Whenever possible, requests for academic accommodation should be initiated in advance of due dates, examination dates, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and Academic Advisor in a timely manner.

The full statement of University policy regarding extensions of deadlines or makeup exams can be found at <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2011/pg117.html>.

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNS

If you feel that you have a medical or personal problem that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds may not be considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult an Academic Advisor. If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines (refer to the Registrar's website, www.registrar.uwo.ca, for official dates). You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

The Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory.

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work and arrange academic accommodations, if appropriate.

4. POLICY ON CHEATING & ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offences in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Academic Misconduct in the Western Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Student Services Centre, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar).

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com.

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal signed by the student must be sent to the Department Chair. If the response of the department is considered unsatisfactory to the student, she may then submit a signed, written appeal to the Office of the Dean. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office, or you can consult an Academic Advisor. Students are advised to consult the section on Academic Rights and Responsibilities in the Western Academic Calendar.

6. PREREQUISITES AND ANTIREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Similarly, you will also be deleted from a class list if you have previously taken an antirequisite course unless this has the approval of the Dean. These decisions may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course because you have taken an antirequisite course.
